The 50th wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Booth, May 1, was the oceasion of a large celebration in Stafford Springs, Conn., where they reside, and at the close of the program and social hour a jewel case containing $100 in gold was presented them. Mr. Booth, who retired from active preaching in 1909, had pastorates in Morrisville at two different imes, was at one time principal of the Northfield high school and later professor of Greek and Latin at Norwich university.

At least three places on the Marlboro branch road near Brattleboro were struck to by lightning. At two of them telephones wer burned out and the paper and casings | s Win were scorched, but at the third, the house of Ralph Thayer, 17 panes of glass were broken, and a cream separator just purchased was damaged. Mr. and Mrs. Thayer were standing in the shed and Mr. Thayer was thrown into the yard, while at the same time a board on which Mrs. Thayer was standing tilted, letting her through the floor.

As a result of an accident which oc curred in Bellows Falls Sunday night during the electric storm, Elbert McGow-an of that place may lose his sight. Mc-Gowan, who is an employe of the electric light company, was working on lines injured by the storm when there was a heavy flash of lightning and flame darted from the ends of two electric light wires which he held in his hands, the flash shooting into the air for two feet and oming close to his face. Except for a burning sensation in his eyes he felt no ill effects, completed his work, returned home and retired as usual. The next morning when he awoke he found that he could not see and it is not yet determined whether his sight is permanently gone or not. Mr. McGowan is very no ular in the vicinity of Bellows Fails and active in athletics.
